TOM CORBETT
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Fellow
Pennsylvanian,

Unwanted telemarketing calls can be a nuisance and an intrusion to your privacy at home. I am pleased that Pennsylvania has joined a number of other states in passing a

“Do Not Call” law. As a result, Pennsylvanians now have the option to eliminate many of these calls by placing their names on a statewide “Do Not Call” list.

My Office is providing several convenient enrollment options that I believe will speed the process and make it easy to sign up. I hope that you will find it quick and convenient. Once you are registered, I encourage you to report any calls prohibited by the “Do Not Call” law to my office

Sincerely,

Tom Corbett
Attorney General

Attorney General Tom Corbett is responsible for enforcing a law which allows Pennsylvania residents to avoid unwanted telemarketing calls to their homes and cell phones. Telemarketers are prohibited from calling anyone whose name is on the statewide “Do Not Call” list.

The law provides for several exceptions under which telemarketers may call your home even if your name is registered on the “Do Not Call” list. Those exceptions include calls from:

- Telemarketers calling at the express request of the residential telephone customer.
- Telemarketers who have had an established business relationship with the residential or wireless telephone customer within 12 months preceding the call.
- Tax-exempt charitable organizations, veterans organizations chartered by the United States Congress, and calls made on behalf of a political candidate or political party.

The law also prohibits telemarketers from blocking their telephone number from a person’s caller identification device. Telemarketers who violate the provisions of the law could face a civil penalty of $1,000 per violation. The penalty could be increased to $3,000 if the call is placed to a person 60 years or older who has registered on the statewide list.

There is no fee for Pennsylvania residential and wireless telephone customers to register on the list. Once enrolled, your name and telephone number will remain listed for five years or until that telephone number is no longer valid.

Once you have registered....

Please keep in mind that since the list is updated quarterly, you can expect a delay between the time you register on the “Do Not Call” list and the time telemarketers are prohibited from making calls to your home. You can verify your registration online at www.nocallsplease.com or by calling 1-888-777-3406.
